"CARRANZA REGENERATING MEXICO," SAYS
GEORGE F. WEEKS, AMERICAN ADVISER

George F. Weeks, an American newspaper man who has long been one of General Carranza's advisers, brings to the American people a new and fresh viewpoint of Mexico under Carranza rule. He reports that Mexico is just beginning an extraordinary period of prosperity under the government of Carranza, and that the hope of Mexico now is a long era of peace. The principal reason for this he ascribes to the fact that foreign merchants have come to the conclusion that the Carranza government is a stable one, and that import and export figures are showing great increases.
